

The Great Fire of London Topic Homework

These homework activities are to be completed at your own leisure over this half term, however we would love you to complete task 1 and choose 2 of the other tasks. We would love to see your ideas and designs please bring them into school on completion. There is no wrong or right way of completing the tasks! Have some fun and enjoy learning about The Great Fire of London with KS1.

1. Can you write a diary entry as Samuel Pepys. What would you see, hear smell in the streets of London in 1666?
2. Design your own information poster telling everyone all about the Great Fire of London. Lots of facts can be found on www.greatfireoflondon.org
3. Play the Great Fire of London game online, can you answer all the questions about the fire correctly? Write down any new facts you might have learned. <http://www.fireoflondon.org.uk/game/>
4. Get creative and paint a scene of the Great Fire of London. What colours are you going to use for the fire and the houses?
5. With your family can you research and try out a baking recipe. Maybe bake some bread like that made in the bakery where the fire started.
6. Play hit the button and work on your doubles and halves. How many doubles can you do in a minute? <https://www.topmarks.co.uk/maths-games/hit-the-button>
